

---

10:00 am - 10:05 am - Chair's Opening Address

---

10:05 am - 10:30 am - Opening Keynote Address

---

- Measuring the maturity, the UK's Culture of accountability for data protection and working with organisations to explore best practice and best tooling to move from a box ticking approach to a data protection first mindset.
- Evaluating the threats and advantages posed by evolving technologies and working with the pioneers of these technologies to bake data protection in from the start
- Pursuing stronger relations with the international information rights communities to place the UK at the forefront of global data protection.

Peter Brown, Acting Head of Technology Policy, Information Commissioner's Office (Invited)

---

10:30 am - 10:50 am - Headline Sponsor

---

10:50 am - 11:30 am - The DPO Effect – How the Evolving DPO Role is Helping to Redefine the Data Protection Profession

---

- How the powers and responsibilities invested in the DPO role have influenced the profession from its day-to-day practices to the relationships with IT, Legal and Management.
- Mapping the evolution of the role after more than a year of GDPR having been implemented, considering the how the intended nature of the role may be out of step with the reality of practicing it.

Dominic Hartley, Data Protection Officer, Department for Work and Pensions (Invited)

Cherry Pinches, Group Data Protection Officer and Global Legal Compliance Officer, Arcadia (Invited)

Michelle de Souza, Chief Data Officer and DPO, Age UK (Invited)

---

11:30 am - 12:00 pm - Morning Refreshment and Exhibition Break

---

12:00 pm - 12:45 pm – Seminars

---

12:45 pm - 1:45 pm – Lunch

---

1:45 pm - 2:30 pm – Seminars

---

2:35 pm - 2:55 pm - Tapping into the AI Revolution – Implications for Data Protection

---

- Underlining the importance of AI in healthcare, healthcare planning and early diagnosis
- Exploring the possibilities of building GDPR aware AI technologies to curb the risk of sensitive data leaks
- Defining relationships with third parties providers to tap into the wealth of UK health data while maintaining anonymity and privacy

Professor Daniel Ray, Director of Data, NHS Digital (Invited)

---

2:55 pm - 3:35 pm - Post-GDPR Breach Forensics: Learning from the Recent Breach Scenarios: BA, Marriot, Facebook

---

Stewart Room, President, National Association of DP and FOI Officers (Confirmed)

Professor Sophie Stalla-Bourdillon, Professor in Information Technology and Data Governance, University of Southampton (Confirmed)

Adrian Leung, Data Protection Officer, Equifax UK (Confirmed)

---

3:35 pm - 4:00 pm - The Changing Nature of Data – The Biometric Data Market and the Right to Privacy

---

- Defining sensitive data in a field of rapid development and the cost of conducting privacy impact assessments for each new form of data.
- The increasing trend towards Biometric Authentication and how organisations should map security and data protection provisions for biometric data.
- Compliance and Live Facial Recognition (LFR) Technology - Is there a future of the technology following ICO concerns UK police trials?

Dr Christophe Prince, Director, Home Office Data and Identity (Invited)

Dr Tony Mansfield, Principal Research Scientist, National Physical Laboratory (Invited)

---

4:40 pm - Close of Summit

---